

THE WESTON-WAYLAND INTERFAITH ACTION GROUP (WWIAG.ORG)
WAYLAND AND WESTON HIGH SCHOOLS AND BOSTON JEWISH FILM

Present a screening and panel discussion:
Etched in Glass: The Legacy of Steve Ross
Free! Registration recommended at bostonjfilm.org

Sunday, October 21, 3-6pm
Wayland High School Auditorium
264 Old Connecticut Path, Wayland

ETCHED IN GLASS:

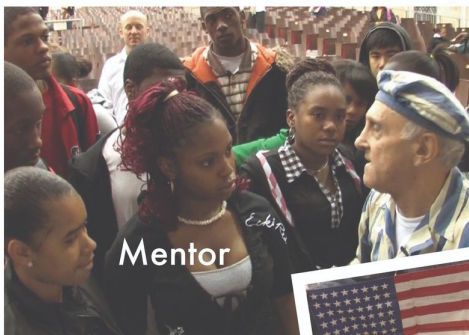

THE LEGACY OF STEVE ROSS

A film by Roger Lyons

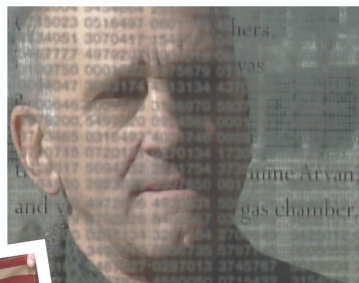

Survivor

A powerful true story of resilience & hope

Mentor

Inspiration

Small acts—insignificant in the course of anyone else's life—
were the very things that changed the course of my father's life.

Mike Ross, as quoted in The Boston Globe

For more information, visit steverosfilm.org

Parents and High School students encouraged to attend.

Panel Discussion and light refreshments to follow.

Panelists:

Roger Lyons, Film Director

Kerry Dune, Chair, Weston High School History Department

Jacob Montwieler, 8th grade Social Studies Teacher, Wayland

High School Students from Wayland and Weston

Steve Bickerton, Film Subject

