

Wayland Celebrates: 100 Years of Women's Suffrage

—
August 26, 2020

North Cemetery - 9:30 a.m. & ongoing

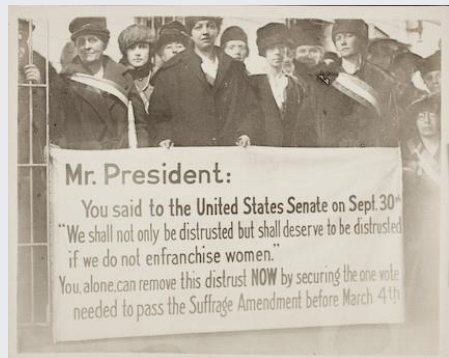

Visit the gravesite of Lydia Maria Child (1802-1880) to honor her role in the decades long fight for gender and racial equality. Join a small program at 9:30 a.m. or drop by throughout the day to leave a flower and visit the display.

Please wear a mask and practice social distancing.

Online Suffrage Tea - 4:00 p.m.

Panel discussion of Wayland suffrage history. Panelists include: Jane Sciacca, historical researcher; Kevin Delaney, Chair, Wayland High School History Dept.; Mary Antes, League of Women Voters of Wayland, and more.

Register or learn more at tinyurl.com/WaylandAugust26

Organizers include Jane Sciacca, historical researcher, Mary Antes, League of Women Voters, Kay Gardner-Westcott, Wayland Historical Commission, and the Rev. Dr. Stephanie May, First Parish in Wayland.